WELCOME TO MY FIRST EVER WEBPAGE

DESCRIPTION

Hi! My name is Diana. I have been in Austria for about two months now. I am studying informatics at IMC. I am on my first semester. This is my first time creating a webpage. I hope you enjoy. It consist of five parts: about, contact, cv, photo gallery and a welcome page. This is a welcome page. On the right, you can see a photo of me taken last summer in a seaside city called Haapsalu. Although Austria is landlocked, at least you have mountains.

HOST OF YOTEI

In the snow-covered lands of northern Japan, where the mountains rise like ancient guardians and silence holds its breath between the trees, a warrior named Atsu walks a path carved by loss. Sixteen years ago, her family was torn apart by a ruthless group known as the Yotei Six. She survived the massacre as a child, carrying the memory of fire and steel in her mind. From that moment, she vowed to return. Not as a victim, but as a blade reborn. Now grown, Atsu has become an onna-musha, a warrior trained in the arts of stealth, swordsmanship, and survival. As her revenge unfolds, Atsu begins to uncover a deeper truth. Vengeance can consume more than it fires, and even the strongest warrior must choose what kind of ghost she wishes to become. Her story isn't only about blood or battle. It's about the line between honor and fury, about finding light in a world shadowed by war. Beneath the northern stars, Atsu's legend grows, giving us a reminder that even in the coldest places, fire can still burn bright.

- This web page contains head and body
  - The body has 3 elements: header, article and footer.
  - The article has 2 sections, with the “description” and “the ghost yotei” part. They are inside ``.
  - In mobile mode, the background colour changes
  - The navigation links bounce when you hover over them.
- On the right you can see the mobile view
  - The body of the nav, heading and a div class which contains 4 grids. The text is wrapped in ``.
  - When its on mobile mode, only 2 grid are displayed
  - I also added a fun way to show language skills, they are in containers.
  - I gave them some styling in css using width and a background colour

GALLERY

- This is the gallery, it has 4 div columns inside a container.

- And when you resize the screen it changes from 4 columns to two to one.

- The pictures are rounded using border-radius: 15%;

- I added a secret link to the funny picture that takes you to a new webpage when clicked on

ABOUT PAGE

- This is about kill bill, the header had a padding: 130px; because i want the first this the user sees when the site is open the main character and her name
- I also added a side-bar with character stats in a <table> and two images of the character
- In main content it has two articles that was text wrapped in .
- The text is a little smaller in mobile mode.

Training with Pai Me

Several years before the Massacre at the Pine, Bill and Beatrix traveled to China, where they were attacked by the Five Point Palm Exploding Jeet Kune Do. Bill survived, but Beatrix was severely injured. She agreed to take Bill as his student, although he represented all the aspects he hated. Bill agreed to train under her, and she agreed to serve as the deadliest assassin at Bill's disposal.

Facing Budd

Driving to the California desert, Beatrix locates and hides underneath Budd's trailer. When Bill arrives, he attacks her. She manages to defend herself, but is severely injured. Bill takes her to a nearby hospital, where she is able to speak again. Bill names her "Veronica". The vermin was Bill, who had also been Hunts student. Although he took her to the hospital, he left her there. Bill returns to the trailer, where he finds Beatrix dead. He buries her alive with a sword.

CONTACT FORM

- The body of the contact form consists of two sections and a footer.
- First section has a nav, like all the other pages. Also has a bigger padding like in the about page.
- Second section is the actual form part, it contains questions in type text, checkbox, radio and number.
- In number you have to choose a number that is smaller than 19.
- This page is the only page with a button, I added some styling in css to make it rounded and change its colour.
- I know the form is not centered, i don't like it either but i don't have the energy to fix it.
- In mobile view the background photo is not displayed.
